

Passim Weather Policy

Club Passim is easily accessible via public transportation, so most shows occur regardless of weather. If the performer is able to be here to perform then the show goes on as scheduled.

If the show does occur and you are unable to attend, no refund will be issued. Since the artist performed, the artist must be paid - this is their livelihood after all.

If a show is cancelled, we will post it here as soon as possible. In that case, all tickets will be refunded.

Cancellation of classes at the Passim School of Music is at the discretion of the instructor. You will be notified when a cancellation occurs - in most cases the class is rescheduled for a date that is convenient for the most participants.

Isn't New England great!?
